

- ▣ News in Full
- ▣ Business News
- ▣ Motoring
- ▣ Property
- ▣ Entertainment
- ▣ Features
- ▣ Lifestyle
- ▣ Sport
- ▣ Béal a Phobail
- ▣ Letters
- ▣ Profiles
- ▣ Competitions

- ▣ Contact Us
- ▣ Advertise
- ▣ Services

Slatehouse Sessions presents major international songwriter night at Cuba

On Saturday evening 30 September Slatehouse Sessions in association with Listening Room Concerts presents a major international songwriter night in Cuba nightclub.

The night will feature acts from around the world including USA, Mexico, Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Ireland, and also includes American songwriting legends Brett Perkins and Alan Roy Scott. Special guests on the night include local up-and-coming acts Pier Nineteen and Emmet Scanlan. The full line-up is as follows: Alan Roy Scott (US); Brett Perkins (US); Una Healy (Ireland); Amalie Riis (Denmark); Anjia Fosslev (Denmark); Sven Hedvansen (Sweden); Henning Kvitnes (Norway); Sheri O'Meara (US); Judith de los Santos (Mexico/US); Maria Steen (Sweden) as well as special guests Pier Nineteen and Emmet Scanlan (solo).

Alan Roy Scott's songs have been recorded by Celine Dion, Luther Vandross, Notorious BIG, Gloria Estefan, Cyndi Lauper, Neville Bros., Cher and Ray Charles.

His work has been featured in films and TV shows such as Top Gun, Coming To America, Karate Kid III, Summer School, Fame, Fame/LA, Santa Barbara, Guiding Light, Melrose Place and Beverly Hills 90210. He has co-written with Burt Bacharach and Mick Fleetwood.

Doors for the gig open at 11pm. Tickets are available for ?10. For further information contact Cuba on 091-565991.

Back to Section Index

